Title: INTERLABORA project

Type of resource: Project

Country: Spain

Language: Spanish

Short Description

The Interlabora Network is a labour inclusion project, founded by the European Social Fund (ESF) and the Ministry of Employment and Social Security of the Government of Spain, aimed at helping migrant people during the labour orientation process. The objectives of the projects are:

- Promote the professional key competences of the migrant users, adapted to their necessities.
- Favour the integration in the labour spaces of the migrant population, working against discrimination in the access to the labour market, as well as in the promotion of the professional career.
- To bring the demands of the productive system closer to the socio-labour reality of immigrants seeking for job opportunities.

In this sense, the project offers three ways of helping, through: social-labour orientation, formation and intermediation.
